The Global Watering Can: Redefining the Rights and Responsibilities of Resource Allocation

Join Engineers Without Borders and the Humanitarian Engineering Department in a conversation about global water resources. There will be three brief presentations by our Kenya team and OSU graduate students followed by an engaging panel discussion between Dr. Simba Tirima of University of Idaho and eminent OSU professors. Come to listen, learn, and get excited for our Lela Fête Benefit Concert on Saturday Jan. 10th at 5:30pm at the Whiteside Theatre on 4th and Madison in downtown Corvallis. Tickets for Lela Fête will be sold at this event. See you there!
